In-text citations
Basic citation formats	Cite a resource in the text by (1) the surname(s) of its author(s); (2) its publication year; and (3) a page number or page numbers, when necessary (e.g., with a direct quotation). These elements of citation can be formatted in two ways. A resource can be cited with the author surnames incorporated into the running text and the publication year and page number(s) set inside parentheses, with a comma after the year and before the page number(s): This phenomenon occurs frequently, according to Smith and Jones (2018). Smith and Jones's (2018) landmark study offers valuable insights. Smith and Jones (2018, 67) consider "indulgent parenting... a danger to the average child."

Issued 2018

Taylor & Francis Journals.

	A resource can also be cited with all elements contained in parentheses and situated before terminal punctuation (e.g., comma, period, semicolon) in a sentence. No comma should separate the author surname(s) from the publication year. When a page number is included in the citation, a comma should appear after the publication year. If the citation appears within a parenthetical phrase, square brackets should be used to set the publication year and, if present, the page number apart from the author surname(s). This phenomenon occurs frequently (Smith and Jones 2018). Several landmark studies offer valuable insights (see, especially, Smith and Jones [2018, 67] on the dangers of “indulgent parenting”). One might, like some experts (e.g., Smith and Jones 2018, 67), consider “indulgent parenting... a danger to the average child.”
Multiple resources cited	When citing multiple resources in a parenthetical citation, two rules apply. First, separate citations by unique sets of authors with semicolons: (Jones 2018; Smith 2010) (Smith 2010; Smith and Jones 2018) Second, when citing multiple resources by the same author(s), include the surname(s) with the first resource’s publication year, omit the surname(s) from subsequent citations, and separate each publication year with a comma: (Jones 2010a, 2010b, 2018) (Jones 2010a, 2010b, 2018; Smith 2010; Smith and Jones 2018) The resources can be arranged, first, alphabetically by author surnames, then, chronologically for each author set by publication year.

Citation with a direct quotation	A citation within the running text can appear before or after a direct quotation: According to Smith and Jones (2018, 67), "indulgent parenting is a danger to the average child." One might consider "indulgent parenting... a danger to the average child," as Smith and Jones (2018, 67) do. Parenthetical citations should appear before terminal punctuation (e.g., comma, period, semicolon) that follows the direct quotation: It is difficult to dispute the claim that "indulgent parenting is a danger to the average child" (Smith and Jones 2018, 67). It is difficult to dispute the claim that "indulgent parenting is a danger to the average child" (Smith and Jones 2018, 67), but researchers should entertain other opinions. Longer quotations (over 100 words or six lines of manuscripts text) should be set off in a "block." Parenthetical citations appear after any punctuation that ends block quotations: ... indulgent parenting is a danger to the average child. (Smith and Jones 2018, 67)
Number of authors	The basic formats for citations with different numbers of authors are as follows: One author: Smith (2018) or (Smith 2018) Two authors: Smith and Jones (2018) or (Smith and Jones 2018) Three authors: Smith, Jones, and Johnson (2018) or (Smith, Jones, and Johnson 2018) Four or more authors: Smith et al. (2018) or (Smith et al. 2018)

Issued 2018

	Use “and,” not an ampersand (&), to separate names in the citation of a two-author resource and a serial comma with “and” in the citation of a three-author resource. When a resource has four or more authors, list the first author’s surname followed by “et al.” If shortening the author listing would render the citations of two or more resources identical, list enough additional surnames before “et al.” in the citations to make their authorship distinguishable. Example Smith, Jones, Johnson, Rogers, and Hart (2018) AND Smith, Jones, Rogers, Johnson, and Hart (2018) BECOME Smith, Jones, Johnson, et al. (2018) and Smith, Jones, Rogers, et al. (2018) to avoid Smith et al. (2018) citations that might refer to two different resources.
Authors with the same surname	If two or more authors have the same surname, include the given-name initial(s) of the authors in each citation: G. Smith (2012) and F. Smith (2008) (F. Smith 2008; G. Smith 2012)
No author	If a resource has no author, include a shortened form of the resource’s title in lieu of an author name followed by the publication year and, as needed, a page number or page numbers. Book titles should be in italics. Book: (Shortened Title of the Book 2018) Other references: (“Shortened Title of Other Reference Type” 2018)
Secondary source	When referring to a secondary source, include “as quoted in” before author name in a parenthetical quotation: Smith's diary (as quoted in Jones 2012)

Issued 2018

Warning - not controlled when printed. Maintained by Head Copyediting, Taylor & Francis Journals.

In press	Use “forthcoming” instead of a publication year for all in-press citations: (Smith, forthcoming)
Two publication years	When a resource has two publication years, cite the original publication year first, in square brackets: Smith ([1890] 2018) or (Smith [1890] 2018)
Tables and figures	Resources cited in tables or figure legends should follow the standard format and must be included in the reference list.
Reference list
Order	Order reference entries alphabetically by author surnames. Entries without authors should be ordered alphabetically among the other entries by their title. A single-author entry precedes a multi-author entry that begins with the same surname and given name. Successive entries by two or more authors when only the first author is the same are alphabetized by co-authors’ last names. If reference entries have the full same author listings, arrange the entries by their years of publication, with undated works at the end. If the reference list contains two or more entries by the same author(s) with the same publication year, list them alphabetically by title of the work and add the designators “a,” “b,” “c,” etc. to the years in sequence: Green, M. L. 2012a. Book title. Green, M. L. 2012b. Title of book. These designators should be employed in citations: Green (2012a) Green (2012b) (Green 2012a, 2012b)

	Example of Order Jones, P., C. Lee, and R. Smith. 2017. Book chapter title. Lee, C., R. Smith, and P. Jones. 2017a. Journal article title. Lee, C., R. Smith, and P. Jones. 2017b. Title of book. Smith, R., P. Jones, and C. Lee. 2017. Journal article title.
Form of author name	For all authors, use initials, with periods and spaces between them, in lieu of expanded given and middle names. Include the authors' surnames in full. The first author listed for a reference should appear in inverted, surname-first format, while all subsequent authors' names should appear in surname-last format. Commas should separate individual author names. The word "and" should precede the final author name for reference entries with ten or fewer authors. If more than ten individuals authored a resource, the reference entry documenting the resource should list the first ten authors followed by "et al." Do not use em-dashes to replace author names if names repeat. Up to 10 Authors Format: Author, A. Z., B. Y. Author, and C. X. Author More than 10 Authors Format: Author, A. Z., B. Y. Author, C. X. Author, D. W. Author, E. V. Author, F. U. Author, G. T. Author, H. S. Author, I. R. Author, J. Q. Author, et al.  If an organization is the author of a resource, the full name of the organization can appear in the reference, and the reference should be ordered by the full name, ignoring "The" if present: British Standards Institution. 2012. Title...

Warning - not controlled when printed. Maintained by Head Copyediting,
Taylor & Francis Journals.

	Alternatively, the organization's abbreviation can be used in the author position of reference entry followed by the full name in parentheses. The reference would, then, be ordered by the abbreviation: BSI (British Standards Institution). 2012. Title... A citation would employ the abbreviation, rather than the full organizational name: BSI (2012) or (BSI 2012)  If a resource has no author, the reference entry should begin with the title of work, followed by the publication year. The entry should be ordered alphabetically in the reference list by its title, ignoring any initial "The," "a," or "an" in the title: A book title with no author. 2018. Smith, A. 2015. Journal article title.
Titles	The titles of book references should appear in italics with sentence style capitalization. The titles of book chapters, reports, and papers should appear in Roman font with sentence style capitalization. Journal article titles should appear in Roman font with sentence style capitalization. The titles of journals in the same reference entries, though, should appear in italics with headline style capitalization (i.e., capitalize first words of title and subtitle, as well as all nouns, pronouns, verbs, adjectives, and adverbs, regardless of length). The titles of journals, moreover, should appear in full; they should not be abbreviated.

Place of publication and publisher name for books and reports	Where two cities are given as a book or report's place of publication, include the first one only in the reference entry. If the city could be confused with another, add the abbreviation of the state, province, or country: Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press New York: Macmillan Englewood Cliffs, NJ: Prentice Hall Washington, DC: Smithsonian Institution Press When the publisher's name includes the state name, the state abbreviation is not needed: Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press Any initial "the" and concluding "Inc.", "Ltd", "Co.", "Publishing Co.", etc. should be omitted from the publisher name in the reference entry.
Issue numbers and DOIs for journals	The issue number can be omitted from a journal-article entry if the journal is paginated consecutively through the volume (or if the month or season is included), but it is not incorrect to include it. When volume and issue number alone are used, the issue number is within parentheses. If only an issue number is used, it is not within parentheses. DOIs are standard elements of journal reference entries. Authors, though, are not required to retrieve DOIs for references.
In press	"Forthcoming" should be used in lieu of a publication year for any in-press references.

Pagination	In page ranges, the thousand and/or hundred digit(s) found in the second page number should be omitted if the digit(s) repeat the thousand and/or hundred digit(s) in the first page number: Nguyen, F. M., and L. N. Anh. 2012. Title of journal article. Journal Title 1:1137–78. Valesco, B. 2015. Title of book chapter. In Book title, ed. J. A. Ricardo, 623–54. City: Publisher.  If an online journal employs e-location or a similar identification system in lieu of pagination, the journal's method should be retained for the reference entry.
